Blessing of the Wife

An accomplished woman, who can find? Far beyond pearls is her value. Her husband's heart relies on her and he lacks no fortune. She repays his good, but never with harm, all the days of her life. She seeks out wool and linen and her hands work willingly. She is like a merchant's ships, from afar she brings her sustenance. She arises while it is yet nighttime, and gives food to her household and a ration to her maidens. She sees a field and buys it, from the fruit of her handiwork she plants a vineyard. With strength she girds her loins, and invigorates her arms. She discerns that her enterprise is good so her lamp is not snuffed out by night. Her hands she stretches out to the distaff, and her palms support her spindle. She spreads out her palms to the poor, and extends her hands to the destitute. She fears not snow for her household, for her entire household is clothed with scarlet wool. Luxurious spreads she made herself, linen and purple wool are her clothing. Distinctive in the councils is her husband, when he sits with the elders of the land. She makes a cloak to sell, and delivers goods to the peddler. Strength and majesty are her raiment, she joyfully awaits the last days. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and a lesson of kindness is on her tongue. She anticipates the needs of her household and does not partake of the bread of laziness. Her children arise to praise her, her husband he praises her. Many daughters have amassed achievement, but you surpassed them all. False is grace and vain is beauty, a God fearing woman she is to be praised. Give her the fruit of her hands and let her be praised in the gates by her very own deeds. (Taken from Proverbs 31:10-31)

AND ON THE SEVENTH DAY GOD ENDED HIS WORK WHICH HE HAD MADE; AND HE RESTED ON THE SEVENTH DAY FROM ALL HIS WORK WHICH HE HAD MADE. AND GOD BLESSED THE SEVENTH DAY, AND SANCTIFIED IT: BECAUSE THAT IN IT HE HAD RESTED FROM ALL HIS WORK WHICH GOD CREATED AND MADE.

The Children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath and observe it throughout their generations as an everlasting covenant. It is a sign between me and the Children of Israel forever: For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He ceased from work and rested.

Kabbalas Shabbas

Come, my beloved and greet the bride the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

Safeguard and remember in a single utterance the one and only God made us hear.
Hashem is one and his name is one, for renown and splendor and for praise.
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

To welcome the Sabbath, come let us go, for it is the source a blessing.
From the beginning, from antiquity. She was honored, last in deed, but first in thought.
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

O Sanctuary of the King, Royal city arise, and depart from amidst the upheaval, too long have you dwelled in the Valley of weeping. He will shower compassion upon you.
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

Shake off the dust, arise! Don your splendid clothes, my people, through the son of Jesse, the Bethlehemite! Draw near to my soul, redeem it!
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

Wake up! Wake up! For your light has come, rise up and shine, awaken, awaken, utter a song, the glory of Hashem is revealed on you.
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

Feel not ashamed, be not humiliated, Why are you downcast? Why are you so disconsolate?
In you will my people afflicted find shelter as the city is built upon its hilltop.
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

May your oppressors be downtrodden, and may those who devoured you be cast far off.
Your God will rejoice over you like a groom's rejoicing over his bride
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

Rightward and leftward, you shall spread out mightily, and you shall extol the might of Hashem, through the men descended from Peretz, then we shall be glad and mirthful.
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!

Enter in peace, O crown of her husband, Even in gladness and good cheer, among the faithful of the treasured nation

Enter, O bride! Enter, O bride!
Come my beloved to greet the bride - the Sabbath presence, let us welcome!
